1. The Manpower Plan (Arbeitskraefteplan) of the Main Administration for Shipbuilding was in the process of being reduced as of mid-April 1955. All establishments under the Main Administration were ordered to submit new manpower plans and have received lower Kennsiffern for them. Establishments which, for some reason or other, did not wish to accept these new Kennsiffern, were called to the Main Administration's Planning Department. In personal discussion there, they were persuaded to do with fewer workers. 25X1
2. If the consultations with the head of the Planning Department, Saengerlaub (fnu), the Plan Coordinator, Kurt Buchholz, and the Manpower Planner, Golde (fnu), did not have the desired effect, there was an additional talk with the head of the Main Administration, Heinrich Kuensel, or his deputy, Arthur Tiefensee. After this talk, all establishments summoned to date out down their manpower plans.
